

Proposed Intervention Logic

Priority	Specific Objective (based on ERDF and ETC regulations dated 24/06/2021)	contribution to SO	Types of action	Indicative actions
PO2	SO 2.vii) enhancing protection and preservation of nature, biodiversity and green infrastructure, including in urban areas, and reducing all forms of pollution	The types of action indicated in this section contribute to the specific objective predominantly by the following approaches: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fostering cross-border initiatives for preservation of the existing flora and fauna and to improve services with environmental interest contributing to sustainable economic growth of bordering regions; - Enhancing cross-border collaboration in water and disaster management for preservation of natural assets and reduction of pollution. 	Type of action 1.1 Elaboration of cross-border/common analytical studies, strategies, action plans and models for more effective preservation of natural assets and biodiversity of the bordering area	Possible fields of action: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - analysis of the load capacity of water reservoirs in terms of quantity and quality, development of monitoring system for change of water reservoirs - elaboration of joint actions for disaster management - research projects in biodiversity - elaboration of cadastres of different species of flora and fauna - common strategies on nature conservation and biodiversity - strategies and action plans for joint management of cross border nature parks (e.g. Ōrség-Raab-Goričko) - improved spatial planning of urban areas and rural landscapes with focus on natural protection - modelling of climate change for the future and pilots for testing possible solutions - action plans for reduction of pollution
			Type of action 1.2 Implementing joint pilot actions contributing to protecting biodiversity, fostering joint water and disaster management and reduction of pollution.	Possible fields of action: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - joint actions improving biodiversity and cross-border ecological connectivity and green infrastructure - joint protocols, monitoring, intervention schemes for risk and disaster management - revitalisation of regulated and sustainable management of cross-border waterflows; - awareness raising activities on biodiversity, nature and environment protection.

Priority	Specific Objective (based on ERDF and ETC regulations dated 24/06/2021)	contribution to SO	Types of action	Indicative actions
PO4	SO 4.vi) enhancing the role of culture and sustainable tourism in economic development, social inclusion and social innovation	The types of action indicated in this section contribute to the specific objective by development of sustainable tourism models focusing on valorisation of the natural- and cultural heritage of the lesser-known areas by the following interventions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Improvement of tourism infrastructure and services; - Further development of existing joint tourism packages and networks from (environmental, economic and organizational) sustainability point of view; 	Type of action 2.1. Implementing actions and joint solutions for development quality of tourism attractions and connected tourism services	Possible fields of action: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - joint development of tourism infrastructure (small-scale elements only) - quality improvement of cross-border tourism attractions with special focus on attractions of lesser-known areas - creation / capitalization of joint tourism products and services focusing on integration of various tourism supply with cross-border relevance - improvement of cross-border accessibility of tourism attractions - application of creative tools for attracting tourists and promotion - actions supporting innovative solutions for presentation and promotion of cultural activities and cultural heritage across the border, primarily focusing on the digital solutions and use of ICT tools.
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Enhancing cooperation of local service providers; - Establishment and joining of joint quality standards and brands; - Human resource development in tourism sector (education, language courses, hospitality); - Application of creative tools for attracting tourists and promotion; - Establishment and/or involvement of tourism destination management organisations in future maintenance and operation of developed tourism facilities and tourism services. 	Type of action 2.2. Establishment of joint tourism quality standards and joint tourism destination management models on the basis of cooperation of tourism organisations	Possible fields of action: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - mapping and collection of existing quality standards - fostering establishment of joint quality tourism standards and brands - connection of micro tourism destinations - establishment of institutional models of organisations dealing with regional tourism management to formulate cross-border tourism destination management systems

Priority	Specific Objective (based on ERDF and ETC regulations dated 24/06/2021)	contribution to SO	Types of action	Indicative actions
ISO 1	ISO 1- a better cooperation governance	The types of action indicated in this section contribute to the specific objective predominantly by the following approaches: - Thematic cooperation of public administration and civil organisations in the field of energy efficiency, utilisation of renewable energy resources, education and labour market cooperation, social and health care, with particular attention to ageing population; - Promotion of cultural exchange and dialogue support of civil organisations operating in the following fields: culture, including minority languages, sport, youth activities.	Type of action 3.1 (b) enhance efficient public administration by promoting legal and administrative cooperation and cooperation between citizens, civil society actors and institutions, in particular with a view to resolving legal and other obstacles in border regions	Possible fields of action: - elaboration of joint strategies to reduce legal and administrative obstacles of cooperation across the border - joint and coordinated spatial planning for easier development activities - joint cooperation activities in the field of low-carbon initiatives (energy efficiency, renewable energy, circular economy). - joint coordinated actions for improving cross-border public transport and e-mobility - cooperation in educational programmes, with special emphasis on language education - revealing and defining possibilities and fields of cross-border social and health care service cooperation - elaboration of joint strategies and action plans addressing social matters and a better integration of horizontal issues (e.g. gender equality and social inclusion, including youth, women and disabled) - joint skills development of the target groups and beyond
			Type of action 3.2 (c) build up mutual trust, in particular by encouraging people-to-people actions	Possible fields of action: - setting up of cooperation agreements of civil organisations in the field of arts and culture, sport, minorities, social integration of youth. - organisation of various joint events - development of joint offline and online publications